

Format
Nature Journal

Cover Page

Cover page should be included with

- i. Title of the project
- ii. The cover can be beautifully designed using a picture or diagram that represents the basic idea of the project

Name of the student:

Name of the School:

Grade:

Nature Journal Lay out

- 1. Acknowledgment (in brief)
- 2. Table of Content
- 3. Reasons for choosing this project/background/ introduction
- 4. Methodology adopted, and equipment used
- 5. Observations
- 6. Conclusions (including your achievements, problems you encountered; future targets )

Observations - Inside pages

Date:.....

Time: .....

Venue:.....

Weather:.....

Use pictures where suitable to explain what you observe

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Conclusion

1. Conclusion and your achievements

2. Mentioned few questions came into your mind while you conducting your observations and answers you found and way you found them (5 sentences maximum)

3. Share your thoughts on what you learn from this exercise and what you are going to do in your future (e.g. keep herbal garden, continue to interact with the nature you live, learn more on the fauna and flora surrounding you, be a champion in future in conservation of the nature (5 sentences maximum)

Final page of nature journal

Details of the student

Name of the student
Grade
Gender	Male/ Female
parent
E-mail
Contact Number

Type of School (Please indicate ✓ in front of appropriate cage)

Type 3
Type 2
1 C
1 AB

Details of Teacher In-Charge

Name
Contact Number
E-mail
Signature

I hereby certify that the project submitted for NSF Kids Naturalist programme is a work done by ..... (name of the students) of ..... ( name of the school) under adult supervision .

.....
Signature of Teacher
Date:

.....
Signature of the Principal
Date: